NOT ONE, NOT TWO, BUT THREE BEAUTIES—Two of Outrigger Canoe Club's charming paddlers pose with team championship award, a beautifully carved wooden pig bowl, their crews won last year during the revival of the Julian R. Yates Canoe Racing Championships at Kailua, Kona, Island of Hawaii. At left is Cynthia Hemmings, a member of the defending championship junior women's six crew, and Anajean Altman, steersman for the defending championship senior women's six. Both gals will be on hand Saturday for Chapter II of the racing revival at Kona.—Photo by "Scoop" Tsuzuki.
