US Clinches Davis Cup Net Match

KINGSTON, Jamaica, B. W. I., July 24 (UP)—The United States clinched a berth in the American Zone Davis Cup tennis finals today when Gardnar Mulloy and Bob Perry defeated Eddie Aris and Ian McDonald, 6-2, 6-3, 6-3, in the doubles match to give the U. S. team a 3-0 lead in the five-match second round series with the British West Indies.

The straight set triumph reduced tomorrow's last two singles matches to exhibition status.

On the 16th, Mrs. Lee's tee shot found the trap on the right while Mrs. Damon was on the fairway below the green which lies atop a hill. Mrs. Damon chipped up to within five feet of the pin. Mrs. Lee exploded out, but overshot the green to the edge of it.

She then putted to within two feet of the cup. Mrs. Damon missed her par when her putt lipped the cup and wouldn't go in. The hole was halved on fours and Mrs. Lee now had Mrs. Damon dormie, two up and two to go.

This break and advantage increased Mrs. Lee's confidence and after that there was no beating her.

She was on in two on the 17th after brilliant first and second shots. Mrs. Damon was short on her second.

With a downhill putt to negotiate, Mrs. Lee decided to play it safe. She three-putted to halve the hole and clinch the match.
