Campos Picked Grand Marshal Of Regatta

Lawrence W. Campos has been selected Grand Marshal of the Koolaupoko Lions' Outrigger Canoe Regatta Sunday and Monday at Kailua Bay.

Louis K. Kahanamoku, general chairman of the affair, announces Campos's choice today.

L. W. Campos

Kahanamoku said the Koolaupoko Lions has adopted a new policy in choosing their grand marshal.

"In the past, we have honored the oldtimers of canoe racing like Dad Center, "The Duke" and John D. Kaupiko, but this year we decided to honor an outstanding citizen of Windward Oahu," Kahanamoku said.

Mr. Campos, born in Puerto Rico of Spanish parents, came to Hawaii at an early age.

He carried on the family's dairy operations after moving from Diamond Head to Kailua in 1925. His ranch has 900 head of cattle.

ARDENT GOLFER

Larry Campos is a World War I veteran. An ardent golfer, he may be found during spare hours at the Mid-Pacific Country Club links in Lanikai.

Mr. Campos is married to the former Margaret Borges and they are parents of four sons and a daughter.