Final Kailua Canoe Races Slated Today

Kailua's Labor Day festivities, featured by a two-day canoe racing regatta sponsored by the Koolaupoko Lions Club, will be concluded today. The highlight will be the crowning of regatta queen Margaret Kaanapu.

The regatta got under way with five races yesterday and will be completed today. Blue ribbon event is the men's senior six. The first event today will be the junior girls' one mile race at 10:30.

The first race in yesterday's canoe race was won by Healani by two boat lengths. It was a quarter mile race for boys under 13 years of age.

The members of the winning team were J. Young, R. Silva, M. Sheldon, H. Young, N. Kahale, and E. Paianana.

Hui Kalia was second, Hui Nalu, third; and Koolaupoko, fourth.

* * *

The second race, a half mile for girls novice, was won by Waikiki Surf Club by five-boat lengths, with team members G. Kahuna, E. Lemon, A. Pope, M. Osborne, J. Cameron, and S. Duncan.

Hui Nalu finished second in the race.

* * *

The third race for boys 17 and under over a one mile course was won by Waikiki Surf Club by 10 boat lengths. The members of this canoe were G. Kuuhi, J. Meyer, M. Vincens, F. Marino, B. Meyer, and A. Gomes.

Others in the order of finish were Hui Kalia, Hui Nalu, Healani, and Koolaupoko.

The fourth race, a half mile men's novice, was won by Hui Kalia by a quarter boat length. The team members included B. Mendonza, K. Nakahi, V. Ohunakini, J. Blankenseld, J. Palinoo, and R. Kakua.

Healani was second, Hui Nalu, third; and Koolaupoko, fourth. The Waikii Surf Club was disqualified in this race.

The fifth race, the men's junior six over a two-mile course, was won by the Outrigger Club with W. Cross, M. Auerback, R. Muirhead, Tom Haine, William Goodheart, and Bill Cross.

Others in their order of finish were Hui Nalu, Koolaupoko, and Healani.