Hauula Team Wins Surf Life Saving Test at Waikiki

The Hauula surf life saving team won first place in a rescue and rescuscitation drill at Waikiki Beach Saturday before the finish of the Molokai-Oahu canoe race.

The Kailua team was second and Waialua was third.

Following are the results of beach activities:

Men's open surfborad race—Edward Whaley, Waikiki Surf Club; Richard Kauo, Hui Nalu; and Tom Moore, W.S.C.

Men's open swimming race—Walter Hoffman, W.S.C.; Scottie Bowman, Kailua Surf Club; Don Gerber, Outrigger Canoe Club.

Women's open swimming race—Kalaeo Brandt, Lanakila Miki (a 12-year-old Waialua girl) and Paige Bovee.

Men's open canoe race—Outrigger Canoe Club (Paul Dolan, Jim Smith, Standwood Formes, Jack Mattice and Charles Martin); Hui Nalu (Richard Kauo, William Kamaka, Christopher Lum, Reuben Makua, Gordon Maenu and Rabbit Kekai).

Children's race—Bill Danford, Arthur Walton and Margie Kepner. All three are 11 years old.