Audrey Char Victor In Woman Race

George Onekea of the Hawaii Swimming club, one of Hawaii's promising young swimmers, yesterday won the 2,000-yard Castle Swim Men's Open in 30 minutes 9 seconds off Waikiki beach. He defeated Charlie Oda, unattached, and John Moore of the University of Hawaii, who finished in that order.

The long distance open water swim was sponsored by the Outrigger Canoe Club, with Toots Minvielle general chairman of the meet.

In the men's open over the same distance for Outrigger Canoe Club members, the veteran Gay Harris, former Olympic backstroke champion, was the winner. His time was 40 minutes 55 seconds. William Prange, Jr. was second and William Prange, Sr. third.
