Canoe Club Drops Kailua Annex Idea

The Outrigger Canoe Club board of directors last night decided to forget any plans for a Kailua annex. Herbert M. Taylor, club president, said today.

Plans to build a branch of the club on Kalama Beach site occupied by the Pearl Harbor commissioned officers club had been entertained by the directors, Taylor said.

"But it was decided at an informal meeting at the club last night to put any Kailua extension out of the way for the present time," Taylor said.

The meeting was called to consider the appointment of a new manager to replace E. P. Ted Magill.

Taylor said interviews of the applicants would begin tomorrow.
