W. Frederick Kane Named Manager Of Outrigger Club

W. Frederick Kane will succeed E. P. (Ted) Magill as general manager of the Outrigger Canoe Club. Herbert M. Taylor, president, announced today.

Mr. Kane will step into his new position about mid-January. Mr. Magill, who has been manager for the past year, resigned recently and plans to return to the Mainland.

Mr. Kane is civilian manager of the commissioned officers mess at the Submarine Base at present.

During World War II, he held that job in addition to being in charge of the Rest and Recuperation Annex of the Submarine Force at the Royal Hawaiian Hotel and in charge of the officers mess at Ft. DeRussy.

He lives with his wife and two children at 3201 Mooheau Avenue.
