2 Canoe Competitions Slated For July Fourth

Two separate canoe races will be run on the Fourth of July next Thursday at two different locations.

The Outrigger Canoe Club is sponsoring the annual Walter MacFarlane Memorial races at Waikiki Beach while the Windward Oahu community organizations will hold a regatta at Kailua Beach. Both events will start at 10 a.m. and the public is invited.

Clubs competing in the MacFarlane races are Waikiki Surf, Healani, Hui Nalu and Outrigger. Kai Oni, Lanikai and Holomua are the only clubs entered in the Windward affair.

The Oahu championships have been scheduled for July 21 at Keehi Lagoon and will honor George (Dad) Center. This will be followed by the Territorial championships in August to be held at Kailua, Kona, on the Big Island.

Both races on the Fourth of July have been sanctioned by the Hawaiian Canoe Racing Association.
