

KONA CREW ANNOUNCE COMING BY WIRELESS

Tom King received a wireless yesterday from Kona, Hawaii, stating that the Hawaiian outrigger crew would be on hand for the Regatta Day canoe races without fail. Kenneth Brown, the captain of the haole crews of the Outrigger Club at Waikiki, has had considerable difficulty in getting his men together this year and while he will not have all the same boys who made up last year's crews, he said yesterday that he was sure his four-paddle crew would win against the Hawaiians and the six-paddle race would be very close.
