

GREAT CANOE RACE TOMORROW

Prince Cupid Makes Some Remarks About Kona and Other Crews.*

Delegate Kuhio thinks it hardly correct to speak of the canoe race tomorrow as a contest especially of the haole against the Hawaiian as mentioned in one reference to the race.

The fact is that the canoe crew of the Outrigger Club made the comment, previous to the Regatta Day race, that they could beat the Kona boys if given their canoe. The Kona boys responded that after the big race of Regatta Day, they would be pleased to meet the Outrigger crew and swap canoes.

That is the occasion for the race that comes off tomorrow at 4:30 p. m. The Outrigger crew will have Kuhio's canoe, and the Kona boys will take what is left.

(Continued on Page 3)