

Outrigger Club Will Announce Directors Soon

New directors of the Outrigger Canoe Club are to be announced at the annual meeting scheduled for 5 p.m., February 28.

The club, which has a lease up to October 31, 1963, on its present site at 2335 Kalakaua Avenue, negotiated a lease for half the Elks Club property at the Diamond Head of Kalakaua Avenue last year.

Asked whether the club facilities will soon be moved to the Elks' site, H. V. Danford, Outrigger president, said present plans are to remain at the present location until the lease runs out.

However, the matter could be re-opened at the annual meeting, he said.

ELECTION CANDIDATES

Thirteen candidates are up for election to the club's five-man board of directors.

Candidates are: James B. Mann, James H. Pflueger, Randolph Crossley, U. J. Rainalter, Martin Anderson, Ernest Thomas, Jack Cross, William Capp, Dr. Irving Blom, Victor Kahn, Archie A. Carswell, Joseph B. Stickney and Danford.
