

Waikiki Surfers Seek 2nd Victory

Waikiki Surf Club, fresh from the opening canoe racing victory of the season Memorial Day, goes after No. 2 Sunday at Kailua.

The Kamehameha Day Races will honor Duke Kahanamoku.

Six other clubs, the Outrigger, Lanikai, Kai Oni, Hui Nalu, Holomua and Healani, will be out to cut short W.S.C. hopes of a sweep of this season's racing program.

Sunday's races, sponsored by the Kamehameha Day Commission and directed by the Hawaiian Canoe Racing Association, will start at 10 a.m. at Kailua Beach. Twelve races are scheduled.

Paul Jones is head of the race committee, Alex Kahalepuna will be head judge, Arnold Capellas, head inspector, Sam Guerrero, head timer, Sol Kalama, clerk of course, Bob Fischer, head starter, John Lind, head announcer and Mary Jane Kahanamoku, head recorder.
