

Waikiki Surf Favored To Win Regatta

The Red and Gold paddlers of Coach Noa Kalama's Waikiki Surf Club, unbeaten in three regattas, are favored in today's Oahu championships which will be held at Keehi Lagoon.

George (Dad) Center, long a prominent figure in local aquatic circles, will be honored at today's races. The first of a 12-event card starts at 10 a.m. Blue ribbon attraction of the day is the men's senior six two-mile grind.

* * *

The Waikiki crews this year started their unbeaten string with the annual Maritime Day races and followed this by taking the Kamehameha Day and Walter J. MacFarlane Memorial races.

* * *

Six other clubs in addition to WSC will be vying for honors today. They are Healani, Holomua, Hui Nalu, Kai Oni, Lanikai and Outrigger Canoe Clubs.