Hawaii Prep Nine Returns From Japan

Weary and tired from a month-long barnstorming tour of Japan, members of the Hawaii High School All-Star baseball team returned to Honolulu yesterday afternoon by Japan Air Lines.

All but two members of the touring equad returned. Team Manager Masao Koike and Rudy Kunihiya are spending a few days in Japan.

Takeo (Fat) Nakamura, coach of the group, said the "kids were pretty tired from traveling." He pointed out that the team's record of six wins, seven losses and one tie was not indicative of the boys' ability.
