

Clarence Maki

Tim Guard Wins Two Surfboard Events

Timmy Guard of the Outrigger Canoe Club emerged as the big winner yesterday as the first portion of the International Surfing Meet was held at Makaha beach in Waianae.

Displaying superb condition, Guard won both the men's junior and senior surfboard paddling events. He entered the junior event first, then competed in the senior division to sweep both titles.

Butch Hemming placed second in both the senior and junior events. Paul Gebauer took third place in the senior event while Gilly Halpern finished third in the junior division.

The women's surfboard paddling race was won by Eibel Kukea. Jan Kaopuki placed second and Cynthia Hemming was third.

Mat surfing events were also held. In the Senior men class the winner was James Keanu. John Severson was second, Joseph Kauwale was third, Harold Mokiao was fourth and Jim Eubank was fifth.

In the Junior men's mat surfing the winner was Paul Strauch. Kala Kukea took second place. He was followed by Butch Hemmings, Ash Hartwell and John Marshall.

The four-man surfboard paddling relay was also run off, with the Israel Surf Club entry of Doreen Pasowitz, Dale Cannon, Charles Riemes and Mongoose Matusic taking first place.

Preliminaries of the Women's surfing championship were also held. Finals of the men's senior, men's junior and women's surfing events will be held next Sunday.

Allen J. Bostich, co-chairman of the meet sponsored by the Waikiki Surf Club and Waianae Liens Club, said waves were poor but that it was an ideal sunny day for spectators. About 5,000 people took in the events during the day.

In photo above, at left, Guard is shown on his surfboard. Photo at right shows Eibel Kukea pushing her board to the beach. Behind her, paddling in, is Jane Kaopuki.

Browns Tie 'Skins, 31-31

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17 (UP) — Cleveland's Lou Groza kicked a 23-yard field goal in the last 13 seconds to salvage a 30-30 tie with Washington's battling Redskins today before 27,722.

Groza's boot climaxed a wild fourth period Cleveland rally that overcame a 30-20 Redskins' lead with only nine minutes to go. And to win, the Browns needed that rarity in pro football—a blocked conversion attempt.

Score by periods:
Washington ... 6 2 14 7—30
Cleveland 3 7 3 17—30

Washington scoring: Touchdowns, Elter 2 (4, plunge; 14, run). Mellinger (34, pass-run from LeBaron). Bosseler (2, plunge). Conversions, Baker (3). Field goal, Baker (24).

Cleveland scoring: Touchdowns, Brewster (23, run with fumble), Hanulak (2, plunge), Carpenter (16, pass from O'Connell). Conversions, Groza (3); Field goals, Groza 3 (19, 25, 23).

Rice Defeats Freeman

Waldo-Simunovich Duo Wins Mat Match

Ricky Waldo and Lucky Si- Waldo took command and used