

Outrigger Tops Hickam For Volleyball Crown

Outrigger Canoe Club, headed by 1956 All-American Jerry Haines and Bill Cross, won the Hawaii Volleyball League championship last night at the Hickam gymnasium before an overflow crowd.

Hickam won the first game, 15-7, but Outrigger came back to take the second, 15-11. Hickam was leading 10-4 in the third and deciding game, with two minutes left to play, but Outrigger came back to win it, 13-11.

Jake Highland and Seguro Teruya, All-American selections last year, were the Hickam standouts.

Hickam leaves Saturday for Japan for the Pacific Air Force championship tournament which will be played at Yokota Air Force Base.

If the Flyers make a successful defense of their Pacific title, they will participate in the World-Wide Air Force tournament at Lawry Air Base, Denver, April 8-9-10.

From Denver the trail could lead to Stockton, California, for the Far Western championships, April 18, and the National championship tournament at Des Moines, Iowa, May 6-9.

Police Five Win H.G.E.A. Title

Police defeated Recreation, 61-30, to win the Hawaiian Government Employees Association Basketball League championship last night at Kalakaua gym.

The Police ran their string of victories to nine straight. Recreation finished in the runner-up position with a 6-2 mark.
