

Y. Ishii

TO VIE ON MAINLAND—Hawaii's paddlers who will vie in the Catalina Island to Newport Beach, California, outrigger canoe race take time out to pose for photo. With them is A. Oberg, harbor master of Newport Beach, who is visiting here. Front row, left to right: Dutchy Kino, Joe Gilman, Cris Bode, Charles Kamai, Ernest Henriques, Jacob Keliikoa. Middle row: Mimi Serikawa, Blue Makua, Archie Kaaua. Back row: Mr. Oberg, daughter and Mrs. Oberg, Toots Minvielle, president, Hawaii-California Outrigger Canoe Association; and Louis Kahanamoku, coach. Missing from photo is Douglas Carr and Joe Meyer.

Hawaii Crew Set For Coast Regatta

Charles Kamai of Molokai and Ernest Henriques of Kona, Hawaii, have been added to the Hawaii outrigger canoe racing team which will vie on the Mainland later this month.

Selection of the two outside island paddlers rounds out the 11-man Hawaii team which will race two California crews Sept. 20 in the Avalon, Catalina Island, to Newport Beach regatta.

Louis Kahanamoku, who will coach the Hawaii paddlers, said the Islanders are rounding into top shape and will leave for California Sept. 16.

Oahu paddlers selected for the team earlier are Dutchy Kino, Joe Gilman, Cris Bode, Jacob Keliikoa, Mimi Serikawa, Blue Makua, Douglas Carr and Joe Meyer. They are working out daily in front of the Hawaiian Village Hotel.