

Makaha Entries Due November 14

Surfers with a yen to battle the "whoppers" at Makaha have until November 14 to enter the seventh annual International Surfing Championships there.

The preliminary events are planned for November 21, 22, and the finals November 28, 29.

Waikiki Surf Club is sponsoring the show, a popular water sport attraction for both local people and visitors.

Entries are expected from Peru, Australia, California and Maui in addition to Waikiki's veterans.

Clarence (Mac) Maki, general chairman of this year's show, said mat, body and board exhibitions will be held the nights of November 21 and 28.

For the finals, the blue ribbon events are the senior and junior men and women surfing and mixed tandem.

If surfing conditions are poor, surfboard paddling events will be held.

Queen of Makaha will be Lorene Perrin, 20-year-old music major at the University of Hawaii and a Cosmopolitan Ka Palapala finalist.

Entry blanks are available from Outrigger Canoe Club, Diamond Head Beach Service, Waikiki Surf Club, Ken Nakano of the Nakatani Super Market in Nanakuli and Joe Pang, Bob Cecil, Gregg Wong, George Young and Waldron Henderson.

Committee members planning events are: Joe Maunakea, Al Naone, Elbert Cripps, Manuel Peresa, Dutchy Kino, Elaine Erickson, Stan Brittleman, Mona Ray Kino, Wally Froiseth and Jim Alama.

Sports Calendar

TODAY

All-star card, Civic Auditorium, 8 p.m.
Wrestling

Fights Last Night

FRESNO, Calif. — Ben Medina, 139, Fresno, stopped Paddy DeMarco, 142, Brooklyn, 7.

MIAMI BEACH — Gomeo Brennan,