

4 Surfing Ex-Champs Qualify

Former champions George Downing, "Rabbit" Kekai, Peter Cole and Conrad Canha were among the 10 qualifiers who'll vie this afternoon for the 1959 title of the Makaha International Surfing championships.

Other qualifiers from the field of 26 men semifinalists were:
 "Buffalo" Keaulana, Henry Kekai, Mickey Dora, Richard Kauao, Wally Froiseth and Tom Kahn.
 Qualifiers in the Junior

Men's Division were:
 Kalani Delovio, Winston Mirikitani, Eric Romanchak, Hal Ige, Johnny Fain, Bunny Lee, Fred Hemmings, Donald Takayama, Dennis McClure and Paul Strauch Jr.

The finals in the Women's Senior were held yesterday afternoon but the judging results will not be announced until the conclusion of the meet this afternoon.
 Today's finals will start at 8:30 a.m., with the Junior

Men competition followed by the Mixed Tandem and Senior Men.
 Clarence (Mac) Makai said that the Mixed Tandem event would comprise the following teams:
 Ed Whaley-Diane Moore; Bobby Krewson - Cathie Clarke; M. Werner - Robin Grigg; "Rabbit" Kekai-Heidi Stevens; Wally Froiseth-Sandie Chapman, Bobby Ah Choy-Lavarne Dutcher and Buddy Young-Kuupio Guerreiro.

Kaopuki, Pam Anderson and Vicky Heldreich compete in the finals of the women's Senior.
 Today's events concludes two week ends of Makaha surfing, the sixth annual such event here.
 Peter Cole, defending champion, is a Californian who has been a teacher at Punahou School the past two years.
 Linda Benson and Robin Grigg are the other Californians in the finals.

Southwest Loop Ends in 3-Way Tie As T.C.U. Wallops Mustangs, 19-0

Combined A.P. and U.P.I. Dispatches
 FORT WORTH Tex., Nov. 28 — Harry Moreland and Marvin Lasater provided the offense and Jack Spikes the defense today as Texas Christian beat Southern Methodist, 19-0, and tied for the Southwest Conference championship fense that throttled Don Meredith's passing.

 T.C.U. wound up with an 8-2 season record and a triple

The T.C.U. line stymied everything the Methodists tried.
 Although Meredith, the famed S.M.U. passer, managed to complete 14 throws for more than 100 yards, he was rushed badly, mostly by the raging Spikes. Seven times, Meredith was thrown for losses.

which set up a touchdown. Meredith was tossed for four yards in losses.
 Of halfback Lasater's two touchdowns, one came on a nine-yard surge behind tremendous blocking early in the second quarter and the other on a 15-yard flip from Larry Dawson with only 35 seconds to play.
 Moreland's sparkling run

The 26 men in the senior division who were divided into two heats, rode six waves for 45 minutes each. They demonstrated some beautiful wave-riding, catching the surf at from eight to 10 feet.
8,000 PERSONS PRESENT
 A crowd estimated at 8,000 saw Sali Lacy, Linda Benson, Cynthia Hemmings, Robin Grigg, Anona Naone, Jane
