

Canoe Clubs' Convention On Dec. 5

The sixth annual convention of the Hawaiian Canoe Racing Association will be held Saturday, Dec. 5, in the Waikiki Biltmore Hotel's Top of the Isles room.

Registration will begin at 9 a.m. and the meeting will commence at 10 a.m. Chief of Police Dan Liu will give the welcoming address.

* * *

INSTALLATION of officers for 1960 will be held following cocktails and party at Mochizuki Tea House. The agenda includes discussion of plans for 1960, amendment to the by-laws and admission of three new clubs.

The new clubs are Hawaii-California Canoe Club of Oahu, Maui Canoe Club and Nawiliwili Surf Club of Kauai.

Delegates from the following clubs will attend the convention:

Oahu—Healani, Holomua, Hui Nalu, Hui Kalia, Kai Oni, Lanikai, Outrigger, Waikiki Surf Club; Hawaii—Kai Opua, Kamehameha; Kauai—Kauai Canoe Club; Molokai—Kukui O'Lanikaula.

Alex Kahalepuna is convention chairman. Heading other committees are Geroge Perry, by-law and amendments; Paul Jones, race rules amendments; Mary Jane Kahanamoku, convention site and housing; Pat Silva, nominations; George Chinen, credentials; Louis Kahanamoku, installation officer and publicity; sgt. at arms, Art Otremba; hospitality, Elizabeth Paima; Herbert Perry, racing schedule.