

Surflines nabs U.H. volleyball title in playoff

Surflines defeated Red Hill in a special one-game playoff match, 15-11, last night at the Klum Gym to capture the championship of the women's division of the University of Hawaii Invitational Volleyball Tournament.

The playoff was necessitated when Red Hill upset Surflines, 15-10, 15-8, to throw the tournament into a tie between the two teams.

In other women's action, Jongg's defeated Pauoa Surfers, 15-12, 11-15, 16-14.

In men's matches, Outrigger remained undefeated by trouncing the Church College Reds, 15-6, 15-1, while Central Y A defeated Paki, 15-6, 15-6, and Church College Whites gained the fourth spot in the round-robin with an 8-15, 15-5, 15-12 victory over Navy.

Fanny Hopeau was named the most valuable women player of the tournament. Miss Hopeau is a spiker for Jongg's.

The All-Stars as selected—Miss Hopeau, Nani Mahiko (Pauoa Surfers), Kehau Alapai (Red Hill) and Gail O'Rourke (Surflines). Setters—Pearl Mahiko (Jongg's) and Billie Baird (Surflines).