

Oahu's Outriggers And Jong's Cop Slam Crowns

Honolulu's Outriggers and Jong's are champions of the week-long Haili Easter Invitational Volleyball Tournaments completed Saturday night in the Haili Hall.

The Outriggers took the men's division by winning over Central YMCA, 15-8, 15-12. Ron Sorell led his young team to a great tournament victory from start to finish. Central Y also played a tough schedule in knocking off Church College and the local Triple A team to gain the final.

Jong's won over the Pauoa Surfers in the one-game sudden-death playoff, 15-10, to take the title. It was tough for the Pauoa Surfers who also played a tough schedule to gain the playoffs.

Big Fanny Hopeau and Pearl Mahiko were the Jong's big guns while the Surfers' Cynthia Kalama, Ruby Kalama, Nani Mahiko and Agnes Mizukami played well.

Co-chairmen Ken Griffin and

Eli Maluo and their committees presented championship awards to the Outriggers' and Jong's; second place Central YMCA and Pauoa Surfers; third place Dillingham and Triple A. Sportmanship awards went to Kawanana-koia and Hookena; coaches awards to Bertha Nahoopii and Ron Sorell; most valuable player to Pearl Mahiko and Ron Sorell; Mahalo awards of appreciation from Jong's, Surfers and Dillingham to the Haili organization.

All-Stars were as follows:

Women — Fanny Hopeau (Jongs), Nani Mahiko (Surfers), Cynthia Kalama (Surfers), Lindell Lindsey (Haili), Jenny Panui (Dillingham), Pearl Mahiko (Jongs).

Men — Ron Sorell (Outrigger), Anthony Paiva (Paki), Sam Koanui (Central (YMCA)), Garry Vietsh (Outrigger), Wardell Lancaster (Triple A), Edward Kalima (Haili).

Saturday games results were as follows:

Women's
Dillingham defeated Haili, 15-6, 17-15.

Pauoa defeated Jong's, 15-17, 15-18.

Jong's defeated Pauoa, 15-8, 13-10.
Jong's defeated Dillingham, 15-5, 15-5.

Championship, Jong's defeated Surfers, 15-10.

Men's

Church College A defeated Haili, 15-6, 15-8.

Central Y defeated Paki, 15-1, 15-7.
Outriggers defeated Triple A, 16-14, 16-14.

Central Y defeated Church College, 18-16, 5-15, 15-12.

Central Y defeated Triple A, 15-12, 14-12.

Outriggers defeated Central Y, 15-6, 15-12.

HPA Nips

