Canoe Paddling Regatta Today

The Oahu championships of the Hawaiian Canoe Racing Association will be held today at the Kaneohe Marine Corps Air Station.

Healani is the defending champion. Seven other clubs are entered in the 12-event program which gets under way at 10 a.m.

Waikiki Surf Club, Lanikai, Outrigger Canoe Club, Hui Nalu, Kailua Hawaiian Civic Club, Order of Kamehameha and Maili Sons are the other clubs competing with Healani.

John Kapua, race chairman for the association, announced that a new course has been laid out. Events will establish records for this course.

Through the cooperation of the Kaneohe MCAS, the public will be admitted free through the main gate. Markers along the roadway will show the way to the racing site, Kapua stated.

The blue ribbon events are the men's senior three mile, women's senior one mile and men's junior two mile races.
