

Big Waves Feature Tandem Surf Event

By ROGER PEPPER

The Makaha surfing meet closed yesterday as spectacularly as a fast breaking wave as Pete Peterson and Barrie Algae defeated defending champion Mike Doyle and Pauline Luton on waves up to 12 feet, the biggest ever ridden in a tandem contest.

Both Peterson and second place Bob Moore beat Mike at his own game of catching the biggest waves and using simple tricks to keep upright on the choppy waves; they caught the biggest waves and did more difficult tricks.

The waves were so big that it took real teamwork to ride them; the girls not only had to be able to get into attractive positions while held aloft, but they had to help paddle the giant surfboards to get them moving fast enough to get into the waves.

BOB MOORE and his partner Pat Young did one of the most spectacular rides of the meet as far as the crowd was concerned; they rode all the way in on a giant wave with Pat held high in the air twirling a baton. Their performance brought an appreciative round of applause from the crowd.

The third place winner, Leroy Ah Choy and Vivian Thomas almost didn't get into the water when Vivian broke two front teeth in a fall during practice, and when they did get into the water Vivian broke the straps off the top of her suit. Leroy

Bowling

Gene Silva missed a 300 game on the final delivery last night and had to "settle" for a 299 game at Waialae Bowl.

After 11 straight strikes, the No. 10 pin remained standing on the last roll.

Despite the heartbreak, Silva also rolled games of 205 and 213 for a 717 series, high for the night in Senior Open bowling.

Other high bowlers were Thomas Tashima 674, Beze Oshiro 657, Jim Fenyo 657, Les Murakami 652, Howard Henna 645, Toto Nakahara 642, Jerry Foster 633, Sanford Kaneshiro 632, Ed Uye-hara 627, Earl Onishi 622, Bones Yamasaki 622 and Ed gallantly gave her his competitor's shirt and the meet went on.

The big waves were a delight to the spectators, but they provided some anxious moments for both the competitors and the judges, as at least one of the girls out in the surf couldn't swim and the chop was causing a lot of wipeouts. More than one girl was assisted to the beach by the busy lifeguard crew.

In a surprise move, the meet had a special competition with a trophy donated by ABC-TV as the prize. Winning the title of Mr. International Surfer was Australian Nat Young, who made up for his loss the day before with an almost flawless performance to beat out Hawaiian representative Reno Abellira who was second, and Californian Mike Purpus, who was third.
