

Peru spikers to play here

A women's volleyball tournament which will include at least two teams from the world championship tournament which opens in Tokyo next week will be held here later this month.

The tournament will be sponsored by the Outrigger Canoe Club. Teams representing the United States and Peru will compete on their return from the global championships.

Peru's squad, only entry from South America in the Tokyo meet, is stopping at the Reef Hotel and will leave for the Orient tomorrow.
