

Volleyball at its best

Local fans will see volleyball at its best April 8, 9 and 10 when the Outrigger Canoe Club plays the powerful Jewish Community Center team from Los Angeles in three exhibition matches.

Both squads are made up of outstanding players.

---

Good times at UH track

Rain pelted University of Hawaii's Cooke Field last night but it didn't dampen the spirit of Moses Ome, Rainbow track coach, who watched three of his track and field candidates turn in OCC is the National AAU team champion and defends its title in May at the Nationals in Seattle.

Pete Velasco is a member of the local squad. He captained the 1964 Olympic team.

The L.A. combo is comprised of volleyers who performed in the Pan '64 Olympics and also at the Pan American Games.

Two exhibition matches are scheduled April 8 and 9 at Farrington gym and on the 10th at Church College of Hawaii.

Tickets for the series are available at Central YMCA, Nuuanu YMCA, Amar's Sporting Goods and OCC.