

Top volleyers at Farrington

If you like volleyball and are interested in seeing some of the best volleyballers in the United States in action then be at the Farrington High School gym tonight at 8 when the visiting Westside Jewish Community Center volleyball team tangles with Hawaii's own Outrigger Canoe Club.

The Los Angeles team, winner of eight straight tournaments in Southern California, has eight members who are billed as All-Americans.

Among them are Mike Bright, a member of the 1964 Olympic team and Larry Rundle, who played in the 1967 Pan-American games.

Harlem Cohen is coach. He was the coach of National Women's team in the World meet and Pan-Am games in 1967. He is also the National women's coach for this year's Olympic in Mexico City.

The schedule follows:

Tonight and tomorrow night at Farrington High School gym, 8. Wednesday at Church College, Laie, 8 p.m. Thursday through Saturday Haili tournament at Hilo.
