

Top Slam Clubs Play Tonight

The Dominoes defeated UHHC in the ninth annual Hailli Invitational Volleyball Tournament last night in the Hailli Hall.

The tournament continues tonight starting at 7 p.m. in the Pihonua gym with all visiting teams playing. Fans will have the opportunity to see some of the best players in the United States, many of whom are nominees for the U.S. Olympic team.

Games listed for tonight are as follows: Outrigger A vs. Central Y B; Westside Masters vs. YBA; West Side A vs. Outrigger B; Central Y A's vs. Outrigger Masters; Hapa-

Haoles vs. Church College;
Women's games — Central Y
vs. Palama; Rainbows vs.
Lehua.

The Dominoes eliminated the Vulcans, 5-15, 15-11, 15-8, to stay alive in the losers' bracket.

UH started out with strong net play behind Tommy Alona, Whitley Vierra and Gary Arakaki to get big points in the first set. The Dominoes came right back to take the match with Walter Pakele, Ronald Aguiar and Maurice Sako scoring with strong spikes and good placements.
