

Outrigger 'A' Wins Title

HILO — Paced by the powerful spiking of Jon Stanley and John Alstrom, the outrigger "A" volleyball team came from the losers' bracketed to beat the Westside Jewish Community Center "A" team from Los Angeles 15-10, 6-15, 15-5, and win the ninth annual Haili Tournament here Saturday night.

In the women's division, Central YMCA of Honolulu whipped Mia of Hilo, 15-8, 15-5, to take top honors.

In the single set tournament final, Outrigger flashed championship form to take a smooth 15-5 victory.

Named the tournament's most valuable players were Jon Stanley of Outrigger and Fanny Hopeau of Central Y.

Other women's all-stars were Vanda Makaio, Mia; Barbara Yoshimura and Mona Fuller, Rainbows, and Jennie Timbreza and Joey Akeo of Central Y. Lyndell Lindsey of Haili was named utility all-star.

Named to the men's all-star team with Stanley were Bill Griebenow, Mike Bright and Wink Davenport of Westside A, Dodge Parker of Outrigger A and Mike McMahon of Outrigger B, with Jack Harlon of Westside Masters as utility all-star.