

Outrigger Beats LA Team To Grab Haili Slam Title

Outrigger Club of Honolulu won the ninth annual Haili Invitational Volleyball Tournament Championship Saturday night in the Civic Auditorium.

Hilo's MIA finished as the runnerup to the women's champion Central Y.

The long week of tournament play—starting Monday saw the finest brand of volleyball.

With the great Los Angeles Westside Jewish Center teams displaying their wares, the tourney acquired an Olympic atmosphere. About 10 players in this tournament will be considered nominees for the U. S. Olympic team.

Outrigger, 1967 National AAU champion, bested the West-siders in the playoff. After losing in the winners' bracket Outrigger came right back to beat the visitors for the championship.

The Haili group hosted the teams with a luau.

Awards:

MEN'S

Championship, Outrigger Canoe Club of Honolulu.

Runnersup, Westside Jewish Center.

Third place, Outrigger "B".

Goodwill, Westside Jewish Center.

Coach, Outrigger's John Lowell.

Sportmanship, Central YMCA.

All-Stars—Bill Griebenow (Westside), Mike Bright (Westside), Wink Davenport (Westside), Jon Stanley (Outrigger), Dodge Parker (Outrigger), Mike McManon (Outrigger), utility, Jack Harlan (Westside Masters).

Most valuable player, Jon Stanley (Outrigger).

WOMEN'S

Championship, Central Y.

Runnersup, Hilo MIA.

Third place, Leialohas.

Coach, Sam Koanui, Central Y.

Sportmanship, Hilo MIA.

All-Star—Wanda Makalo

(MIA), Barbara Yoshimura (Rainbows), Fanny Hopeau (Central Y), Jenny Timbreza (Central Y), Joey Akeo (Central Y), Mona Fuller (Rainbows), utility, Lindell Lindsey (Haili).

Most valuable player, Fanny Hopeau (Central Y).

Special awards:

Tom Lyons, Sam Koanui, John Lowell, Carl McGowen, Bo Paiva, David Calles, Bill Kama, Mrs. Violet Dan Nathaniel, Ken Griffin.

Final day results:

MEN'S

Outriggers defeated Westside, 15-10, 6-15, 15-5; Outriggers eliminated Outrigger B 5-15, 15-1, 15-5; Westside defeated Outrigger 15-11, 7-15, 16-14; Outrigger B eliminated Church College 15-10, 11-15, 15-2; Church College eliminated Westside Masters 15-13; 15-6; Outrigger B eliminated Keaukaha Cardinals 15-1, 15-6; Westside Masters Eliminated Haili A 15-3, 15-10; Outrigger defeated Keaukaha Cardinals 15-6, 15-6.

WOMEN'S

Central Y bested Hilo MIA 15-8, 15-6; Hilo MIA eliminated Leialoha 15-2, 15-11; Central Y defeated Leialoha 15-8, 15-5; MIA eliminated Rainbows 15-10, 15-12.

Cokes Defends World Title

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Custis Cokes of Dallas, makes the fourth defense of his world welterweight title Tuesday night when he takes on left-handed Willie Ludick of South Africa at Dallas.

The 15-rounder will be held in the Memorial Auditorium.

Pro Basketball

By The Associated Press

NBA

Sunday's Results

Eastern Division