

Outrigger Pair On All-America

John Stanley and Pete Valesco of the Outrigger Canoe Club were named to the All-American Volleyball team after the national tournament held in Portland, Ore., it was announced yesterday by Bill Robinson, Hawaii volleyball commissioner.

Robinson said that Tom Haine and John Alstrom were named to the second team and Butch May to the third.

The Outrigger team finished second to the Westside Jewish Center of Los Angeles.

The Hawaii women's team also placed two on the All-American squad, Fannie Hopeau and Barbara Perry. Sharon Peterson made the second team.

Half of the senior division All-American team came from Hawaii, Tom Haine, Fred Noa and Pat Wyman. Ron Sorrell and Bill Baird made the second team.

Counting the fine Church College team, which had Tony Crabb and Earl Voloria on the first team, Edward Kalima on the second and James Dumaguin on the third, Hawaii had 17 persons winning All-America recognition.

Robinson said that the District 15 (Hawaii) had been enlarged to include all the Pacific.

Prep Players

Win Handball

Nuuuanu YMCA's invite