Vie for State

Title Saturday

Eleven canoe clubs go after the State Outrigger Canoe Racing championships Saturday at Kaneohe Bay Marine Corps Air Station. The 11-race program begins at 10 a.m.

The half-mile course offers the racers freedom from coral hazards and spectators a good view from the beach area. Originally the event had been scheduled for Keehi Lagoon.

Outrigger Canoe Club is the defending champion.

Challengers are Kauai Canoe Club, Maili Sons, Kai Ona, Lanikai, Hui Nalu, Leeward Kai, Order of Kamehameha, Waikiki Surf Club, Healani Canoe Club, Kailua Hawaiian Civic Club.

The public is invited.
