

Regulars at the Outrigger Canoe Club will miss Mrs. Helen Kishida, a waitress in the dining room for 25 years. Mrs. Kishida, who has never been off the Island of Oahu, will leave soon on a trip to Japan, presented to her by a group of longtime members of the club and some of her fellow employes.

Widowed when her five children were young, Mrs. Kishida has raised and educated all of them alone.