

Yacht Racing Season Begins

Waikiki Yacht Club's Herb Hodge, a Honolulu stockbroker sailing yacht Nalu, placed second on Saturday then bounced back for a 15-second win yesterday topping Class B's 13-boat fleet in Honolulu's two-day yachting opener held off Waikiki.

A record 118 yachts grouped into 17 divisions and representing seven Oahu clubs competed in the light wind series. Offshore yachts raced two heats, a 10-mile event Saturday and a 20-mile race Sunday while smaller-class boats sailed three heats in two days. The weekend regatta, a joint effort of Hawaii and Waikiki

Yacht Clubs, marked the opening of Hawaii's yacht racing season.
