

Olympia Gold

Volleyballers

Making Big Hit

HILO—Olympia Gold, a team drafted from pure local ranks, was the team to beat today in the finals of the Haili Invitational Volleyball Tournament at Civic Auditorium.

A crowd of 2,000 was expected for the finals and, judging from yesterday's performances, Olympia Gold can do no wrong.

The local team, which drew thunderous cheers for each point scored yesterday, was favored to take the title as it met Santa Ana Junior College in the first game followed by Media Five vs. Parker Broilers and Outrigger Canoe Club 'AA' vs. Central YMCA.

OLYMPIA Gold pulled an upset in one of last night's final matches, bouncing Central Y, 15-12, 15-8. Outrigger topped Parker Broiler, 15-8, 15-9. Media Five, a group of kids from Oahu, won over Western Auto, 13-11, 15-10, and Santa Ana whipped Rap Center, 15-4, 15-6.

In women's competition, Nick's I, the favorite, met Haili in the first game, followed by Nick's II vs. Hoolakiaa and Hui O'Keupaha vs. Central 'AA.' Today's games were to be 15-point, sudden-death affairs.