Maui Channel swim set

The Maui Channel Swim, a six-person briny relay from Halepalaoa Landing on Lanai to Lahaina Harbor, is set to splash off Sept. 2, at 9 a.m.

Organizers for the seventh annual event say 16 teams have entered — 10 from the Mainland — and entries will be accepted right up to the start of the race. The swim is purported to be a masters event, meaning entries must be 25 or older. However, women may enter from 20 years up.

The Waikiki Swim Club won last year's version in 3 hours, 33 minutes.

Each team is accompanied by an escort boat, with each person on the team swimming half-hour legs from the start. After all six team members have had their 30 minutes, they start over with 10-minute legs to the finish.

A banquet at the Pioneer Inn Sept. 1 will precede the swim.
