

Hall of slated f

Tickets are still available for the inaugural Hawaii Sports Hall of Fame and Museum banquet next Monday night in the Coral Ballroom, Hilton Hawaiian Village.

Bob Tom, chairman of the Selection Committee, said seating is available for 2,000 persons and that 1,200 reservations have already been received.

Tickets are $25 per person and are available from Rep. Jann Yuen, president of the Hawaii Sports Hall of Fame and Museum, Rep. Calvin Say, and at Bob Tom's office at 525 Kama'i Street in the Kaka'ako industrial area.

Twenty five former athletes and sportsmen will be honored and inducted at the inaugural banquet. Duke Paoa Kahanamoku will be honored post-humously as Hawaii's greatest athlete for his achievements in swimming, canoe paddling and surfing.

Others to be inducted are:

Baseball — Alexander Cartwright, father of modern baseball who introduced the game to Hawaii.

Basketball — Ah Chew Goo, rated one of the most outstanding basketball players in the history of Hawaii as a Hilo High and Hawaii Senior League player; coached University of Hawaii, 1954-56.

Basketball — Ephraim (Red) Rocha, who played with Oregon State University and with NBA professional teams, and coached the NBA Detroit Pistons, Hawaiian Chiefs pro team, and University of Hawaii.

Bowling — Taro Miyasato. An all-time great in Hawaii who was a contender in national tournaments; rolled several "200" games.

Boxing — Dado Marino. Won world flyweight championship on August 1, 1950, by scoring a 15-round decision over Terry Allen of England. Outstanding amateur boxer in Hawaii and national tournaments.

Boxing — Carl (Bobo) Olsen. Won world middleweight crown on Oct. 21, 1953 by defeating Randy Turpin.

Canoe Paddling — E.A. (Toots) Minville Jr. Generally considered the father of long distance canoe racing in Hawaii. Originated Hawaii-California competition.

Football — Herman Wedemeyer. One of the greatest running backs in Hawaii history. He was named to Grantland Rice's All-America team in 1945 when he was with St. Mary's College.

Football — J. Atherton Gilman. He was Hawaii's first All-American as a tackle at Harvard on Walter Camp's 1915 selection; coached McKinley High School to its first ILH championship in 1921.

Football — G.W. (Scotty) Schuman. Organized the Hawaii Senior League and the Town Team club and brought in Mainland college and all-star teams for games here on Christmas and New Year.

Football — Thomas K. Hugo Jr. He was an ILH all-star at Kamehameha in 1948, all-Big Six at the University of Denver in 1951, and all-pro with the Canadian Football League's Montreal Alouettes for seven years from 1953.

Football — Hiram Kaakua. Nicknamed the "Black Grange" he was an outstanding running back at the University of Hawaii and in the Hawaii Senior League.

Golf — Francis H. li Brown. He was "Mr. Golf" in Hawaii, winning the Manoa Cup nine times from 1920 through 1934, the Japan Amateur in 1929 and the California Amateur in 1930. He set a course record of 87 at the Royal and Ancient Golf Club in Scotland in 1924.

Media — Vernon (Red) McQueen. An outstanding all-around athlete in high school and the University of Hawaii, he became one of the most respected sports writers in the country as sports editor of the Honolulu Advertiser from 1927 to 1965. Honored nationally as "Sports Writer of the Year" by the Los Angeles Times.

Pole — Walter F. Dillingham. He was an outstanding player nationally as well as locally from 1913 to 1930 and was rated a six-goal player.

Softball — Thomas K. Hugo Sr. Rated as the most outstanding player in this sport from 1924 through 1949 and was an all-star in virtually every league he played in.

Swimming — William M. (Bill) Smith. Olympic gold medal winner in the 400-meter freestyle in the 1948 Olympic Games in London. He was named to Ohio State University's Swimming Hall of Fame for his numerous victories from 100 to 800 meters. Held many world records in freestyle swimming.

Swimming — Ford Hiroshi Konno. Won gold medal in the 1952 Olympics in Helsinki, Finland, in the 1,500-meter freestyle and the 500-meter freestyle relay and a silver medal in the 400-meter freestyle. Held many world records from 200 to 1,500 meters in AAU competition and inducted to the Helms Swimming Hall of Fame.

Swimming — Soichi Sakamoto. One of the all-time great swimming coaches in the world who brought his "irrigation ditch" swimmers from Maui to local, national and international fame.

Track — James Kneubuhl. The greatest all-around track performer in Punahou School history. His record of 9.7 for 100 yards and 49.1 for 440 yards still stand as State High School records.

Volleyball — Pedro (Pete) Velasco. Named to Helms Volleyball Hall of Fame in 1970. He was an All-American for 10 years, captained the U.S. Olympic teams to Tokyo, Japan, in 1964 and in Mexico City in 1968.

Weightlifting — Tommy Y. Kono. A multi-division world, Olympic and national champion. Won Olympic 148-pound title in 1952 at Helsinki and the 181-pound crown in 1956 at Melbourne.

Weightlifting — Harold Sakata. First Hawaii-born athlete to win an Olympic weightlifting medal. He won silver at London in the 181-pound division and was inducted into the Helms International Weightlifting Hall of Fame in 1972.

Yachting — Clarence MacFarlane. Pioneered yacht racing in Hawaii and was instrumental in perpetuating water sports at the Outrigger Canoe Club.

In addition to Kahanamoku, Brown, Schuman, Cartwright, Dillingham and MacFarlane will be honored posthumously.