OCC Topples UH in Volleyball

Outrigger Canoe Club played very well against a short-handed University of Hawaii team in pulling out a 8-15, 15-7, 14-16, 15-10, 15-5 victory last night in an exhibition volleyball match at Klum Gym.

The Rainbows, minus three players —Tom Pestolesi and Jamie Plummer are nursing shoulder injuries and Dale Horning a bad cold—couldn't stop OCC's Mark Rigg and Jon Anderson who finished with 24 kills apiece. Anderson also had 11 blocks.

The ailing 'Bows were led by John Hanley and Dan Vrebalovich, each hitting home 21 winners.

The second-ranked 'Bows have a week to recuperate before hosting UC-Santa Barbara, the No.1

team in the country, in a two-game series next Wednesday and Friday nights at Klum.

In another men's exhibition match last night, Brigham Young-Hawaii got past Lokahi Canoe Club, 16-14, 12-15, 15-13, 15-10, at the Cannon Activities Center in Laie.
