

89 teams in Haili field

HILO — A record 89 teams will compete in the 25th annual Haili Easter Volleyball Tournament, which gets underway next Monday.

Clubs from California, Samoa and throughout Hawaii will play for six days on five courts in four gyms before the championship matches are staged April 2 at Hilo Civic Auditorium.

Matches will run from early morning to late at night in the double-elimination format.

As of yesterday, 47 women's and 42 men's teams were entered, including both defending champions — the Outrigger Canoe Club of Honolulu men and the UH-Manoa Rainbow women.

Members of the UH-Hilo women's team, which won the NAIA championship last season, will be split among the Mid Pac and Volley Girls teams.
