Outrigger surges to state title again

KAANAPALI, Maui — No surprises. The dynasty continues. Outrigger Canoe Club whips again.

Outrigger handily won its sixth consecutive state championship yesterday at Hanalei Bay. OCC scored 60 points. Hui Nalu made a late rush but finished a distant second with 120.

Kamehameha of the Big Island scored 60 points to win the AA division for clubs with seven- to 14 crews and Keaukaha had 27 points to win the A division for clubs with six crews or less.

Sailboats, swimmers, a clear horizon, and one of the most beautiful of all sights — tail-busting paddlers making ea canoes slice through the blue — made for a picturesque but nap-inducing backdrop.

The sleepy atmosphere was also brought on by the warm sun and, after a slow start, Outrigger coasted performance. "We're not winning pretty," Outrigger coach John Finney said near the end. "But we've been getting a lot of thirds, fourths and fifths, placing in every division."

OCC snowballed points, turning the meet into an early snoozer, except for those still to paddle and the most dedicated supporters.

Outrigger built enough of a lead midway through that Finney "made a decision to quit everyone who came when you Novice A came in with a win."

By mid-afternoon, after 20 events, Outrigger had 104 points to second-place Hui Nalu's 69.

Things got to the point where agency announcer Linauala Kalama-Heine had to beg people to stay awake.

Hui Nalu made things slightly interesting with a strong finish by its women's crews.

"Some of our upper-division men are on the Mainland kayak team," Hui Nalu women's coach

Denise Darvall said. "We had only 25 crews entered."

For Outrigger, which entered a full 30 crews, yesterday's regatta was a microcosm of its season.

Outrigger came in strong slowly but gained enough momentum to easily capture the Oahu Hawaiian Canoe Racing Association championship.

Yesterday, Outrigger banked roughly on a cool Maui morning but ayokoi to furiously flash its paddles, and then medals, in the afternoon sun. Like many times before, Outrigger had its Senior Masters' Women crew to thank for spurring the entire club.

OCC's Senior Masters' Women won their fifth consecutive state title and capped an unbeaten season. Their victory in the regatta's 10th event was Outrigger's first of the day and put OCC in the lead for the first time.

"Yeah, they gave us the spark that set us on fire," Finney said. "It's kind of built from there, didn't it?"

Indeed, in the next race, the Men's Novice B Outrigger won again and was off and paddling, quickly winning two more races.

Still, Outrigger finished the day with only five victories. Hui Nalu had four.

Lokahi, the Hui Wa'i champion, was a disappointing last of the seven teams in the AAA division (15 or more crews).

"I thought a couple of our crews would do better," Lokahi coach Mike Cushman said. "Adjusting to the koa canoes wasn't a problem. It was probably more of an adjustment to the competition."

Neighbor Island crews won the first four events from outside lanes. Maui's Na Kei 'Ewalu won the Girls 12-Hilo's Kamehameha the Boys 12. Kihel of Maui the Mixed 12, and Kaula's Hanalei the Girls 13.

Some observers said variable currents (the surf at Hanalei's north and south footfall channels) might have given the outside lanes an edge, especially in the morning.

Kim Kino, coach of Hawaiian Canoe Club of Maui, said even Maui crews were not familiar with the outside lanes because only six lanes are used during the regular season. "And I like to think if crews are good enough, they'll win in any lane," Kino said.

Healanii's Boys 16 crew capped an unbeaten season with a victory yesterday. All six boys will now get ready for football season.
