

In conjunction with National Bowling Week (Sept. 3-10), the Bowling Council of Hawaii will present an information booth at Pearlridge Phase II.

The booth will be open on Saturday, Sept. 2, and Sunday, Sept. 3, from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

As the local representative of the National Bowling Council, the Bowling Council of Hawaii is open to all interested individuals and organizations. Membership includes bowling proprietors (military and civilian), Young America Bowling Alliance, Hawaii State Men's and Women's Bowling Associations and Oahu Men's and Women's Bowling Associations, as well as the media and bowling public.

For more information, call the Oahu Women's Bowling Association at 845-4175 or the Oahu Bowling Association at 845-4111.

Canoes to race: The 15th annual Dad Center long-distance canoe race for women, sponsored by the Oahu Hawaiian Canoe Racing Association, is scheduled for Sunday.

The 12-woman crews will depart from Kailua Beach Park at 9 a.m. on the approximately 22-mile course and should arrive at the finish line at the host Outrigger Canoe Club around noon.

Outrigger, the defending champion, holds the course record of 3:18:58, set in 1985.

Hui Nalu's women paddlers have won both the Kaena Challenge and the Duke Kahanamoku races the last two weeks (ironwoman events) and are the favorites in this week's race, which allows substitutions.

Healani, Outrigger and Surfports are expected to be their chief competition.

Summer Softball Festival: The Easter Seal Society of Hawaii will hold its Summer Softball Festival on Saturday and Sunday at Keehi Lagoon Field, beginning at 8 a.m.
